Request for Participation for the Provision of free Accommodation to Healthcare Professionals

The Ministry for Health is inviting owners of accommodation facilities who are willing to offer property, in Malta or Gozo, free of charge or at a cost, to be used to accommodate Healthcare Professionals who are unable to stay at home for defined periods, because of specific reasons e.g. a household member requires quarantine.

Accommodation may be in form of self-catering apartments or hotels which offer kitchenette within the premises. The accommodation should also have washing machine or possibility for laundry services.

Apartments / rooms should preferably be comprised of single-bedded rooms, although twin and triple rooms will also be considered.

Options provided at free of charge must include utility bills, where employees will be held responsible for using such services. Proposal including the details of location, number of beds available and details of contact person are to be forwarded through negotiation.cpsu@gov.mt

Submissions

Requests for Participation should ONLY be submitted through negotiation.cpsu@gov.mt by not later than 10:00am on Friday 7th August 2020. Submissions submitted through other emails will not be considered.

Any Requests for Participation submitted after this date and time and/or through other means will be automatically rejected.
