

Why is CONTACT TRACING important?

Contact tracing means identifying everyone who has come in close contact with someone who tested positive to COVID-19.

It is an effective way to stop the spread of the virus by isolating close contacts and breaking the chain (⚡) to prevent onward transmission of #coronavirus.