The Council for the Professions Complementary to Medicine requires applicants originating from countries that do not have English as their first Language to meet the Council’s level of Proficiency in the English Language.

This applies to applicants making first contact with the registrar as of the 1st February 2017 or, in any case, those submitting their application from the 1st of May 2017 onwards.

All professionals seeking registration are requested to present a Secure English Language Test (SELT) certificate, in terms of the table shown here under, which indicates the Examining Boards recognized by the Council and the minimum required standards accepted by the Council.

*Occupational English Test (OET): A grade B or better is required in all components.

All certificates presented must be less than a year old at the date of submission of the application.

Applicants from the U.K., the Republic of Ireland, the United States of America, Canada, Australia and New Zealand do not require a language proficiency certificate.

Notice to Applicants seeking registration in the Speech Language Pathology (SLP) Register

Communication in English is a core professional skill for speech-language pathologists in Malta. Speech-language pathologists need to have an operational command of the language and be able to generally handle complex language well and understand detailed reasoning. The requirements for registration in the SLP profession are therefore being listed separately below.
